JANTON, ROBIN C.
1942-1989
LINEAR FT.: 12.2
APPROX. NO. PGS.: 18,000

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Robin C. Janton was born in Columbus, Ohio and served in the Army as a ranger in the 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) and the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea from 1964-1968. After leaving the Army, Mr. Janton owned and operated a sporting goods store until 1979. In 1987, Mr. Janton became a non-denominational minister. The inspiration for Janton's work comes from the war time experiences of his father, who served as a crew chief for the 859th and 788th Bomb Groups during World War II.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This Manuscript Collection consists of eighteen boxes of materials collected by Robin C. Janton for his book The Two Squadrons That Were One: The 859th and 788th Bombardment Squadrons, England, World War II, written in 2003. This collection maintains the original order established by the donor, and his original index has been adapted to conform to Clark Special Collections standard format. The collection is arranged into nine series, outlined below.

SERIES ONE: PERSONNEL

Consists of files on the various units within the 859th and 788th Bomb Squadrons that served in England during World War II. All personnel in these units were identified by Mr. Janton and others knowledgeable about the subject.

SERIES TWO: TOPICAL FILES

Includes flight records, casualty reports, fuel logs, and other information used by Mr. Janton in his research. Also included are files pertaining to citations and medals awarded to members of the 859th and 788th Bombardment squadrons during World War II.

SERIES THREE: DIARIES AND NARRATIVES

Consists of diaries and narratives pertaining to the military and post-Military activities of various air crews and individuals in the 859th and 788th Bombardment Squadrons

SERIES FOUR: PHOTOGRAPHS

Consists of photographs and negatives used by Mr. Janton for inclusion in his book. The photographs have been identified by the donor.

SERIES FIVE: CORRESPONDENCE

Consists of correspondence between Mr. Janton and various Air Force historians concerning his research into the 859th and 788th Bombardment Squadrons in England during World War II.

SERIES SIX: NEWSLETTERS

Consists of newsletters and reunion information from the two bomb squadrons and the 8th Air Force. Also included are newsletters from various units not included in Mr. Janton's research.

SERIES SEVEN: MICROFILM

Consists of 16mm microfilm pertaining to Mr. Janton's research from the Air Force History Office at Maxwell AFB. The boxes of film are identified by an "Identity Number" provided by the Maxwell Air Force History Office.

SERIES EIGHT: ARTIFACTS

Consists of a World War II poster mounted on cardboard and two decks of playing cards. One deck is from the 8th Air Force Museum in Savannah, Georgia, and the other deck of cards is one of the decks used in Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003.

SERIES NINE: MISCELLANEOUS

Consists of materials gathered by Mr. Janton that do not pertain to his research on the 859th and 788th the Bombardment Squadrons. Topics include the attack on Pearl Harbor, other units in World War II, and the Vietnam War.
