

SMS 1140
7 June 2021
Schreck, Christopher J.

RULE, SYDNEY H.
1917-1922
Linear Ft.: 0.1
Approx. No. Pgs.: 220

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Sydney Rule was an enlisted man in the Eleventh Aero Squadron during World War I, and later became the founder and operator of Rule's department store in downtown Oakland, California. This collection was donated by David Berg, USAFA graduate class of 1976.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection is comprised of three items divided into two folders, which are focused entirely on the Eleventh Aero Squadron and its activities during World War I.

Names: Rule, Sydney H.; Heater, Charles L.

Keywords and terms: Eleventh Aero Squadron; 11th Aero Squadron; World War, 1914-1918; World War I; Diary

ARRANGEMENT AND DESCRIPTION

SERIES ONE:

BOX ONE

- | | |
|----------|--|
| Folder 1 | Eleventh Aero Squadron. Includes a small diary written by Sydney Rule and a typed letter addressed to Rule from Charles L. Heater. The letter was an update on a book that he was compiling about the Eleventh Aero Squadron, and includes a complete list of names of men in the squadron. 14 August 1917-18 October 1921 |
| Folder 2 | Eleventh Aero Squadron Book by Charles L. Heater. Published in 1922 by the Wartime Members. Includes names, photographs, and biographies of squadron members along with a very detailed account of their activities throughout World War I. Very limited publication |